

New CD Release

Jerry Corbitt, co-founder of the Youngbloods and the Corbitt and Daniels Band (with Charlie Daniels) has released a new CD titled "Along For The Ride". This is his best album since his major hits "Get Together" and "Grizzly Bear". The album includes guest appearances by many of his friends, including Jesse Colin Young, Charlie Daniels, Bobby Flores, Peter Childs, Mark Karan, Jeff Sturms, Stevie Davis, and others.

It's available both as a download and a CD on his Desert Wind Music label. You can listen to tracks at www.myspace.com/jerrycorbitt and see the slide show. You can read his bio, extensive discography and learn more about him at www.jerrycorbitt.com. Jerry plans to tour early in the coming year to promote this new recording project.

Jerry re-united with his lifelong friend Jesse Colin Young this past summer for shows in northern Texas. Jesse is featured singing harmonies on a number of tracks on Jerry's new CD.

This fall Jerry was a featured artist at the "Frank Brown International Songwriters Festival" and received great reviews from the audiences and his peers for his solo shows.
